I. COURSE DESCRIPTION

Acts records the beginning of the early church. This book has played and continues to play an important role in shaping the church’s sense of its identity and mission. This course is primarily an exegetical study of Acts. By exploring the content and themes of this book, this course will examine Acts’ historical, literary, and theological qualities within relevant first-century contexts. This course will also involve a sustained discussion of how the message of Acts can be integrated into the life of the church today.

II. LEARNING OUTCOMES

At the end of the course, students will be able to:

1. Learning Outcomes in the Cognitive Domain 認知目的

- Describe the purposes, content, and messages of Acts 描述使徒行傳的寫作目的，內容，信息
2. Learning Outcomes in the Affective Domain 感知目的
 - Appreciate the diverse perspectives on the study of Acts and respond to the issues in the study of Acts 欣賞使徒行傳研究的多元面向並能回應其議題
 3. Learning Outcome in the Practical Domain 實踐目的
 - Interpret Acts in light of its historical, literary, and theological contexts 基於使徒行傳的歷史、文學、神學語境釋經
 - Critically examine and evaluate commentaries on Acts by comparing their goals and methods of New Testament exegesis 基於其目的與方法鑑別使徒行傳的釋經書
 - Analyze major theological themes in Acts and explain their significance for contemporary Christian thought and practice 分析使徒行傳的主要神學主題，解釋其對現代基督信仰和實踐的影響
 - Articulate the importance of Acts to the church today 說明使徒行傳對今日教會的意義

C. GUIDELINES FOR INTERACTIONS

Tyndale University prides itself in being a trans-denominational community. We anticipate our students to have varied viewpoints which will enrich the discussions in our learning community. Therefore, we ask our students to be charitable and respectful in their interactions with each other, and to remain focused on the topic of discussion, out of respect to others who have committed to being a part of this learning community. Please refer to “Guidelines for Interactions” on your course resource page at classes.tyndale.ca.

D. ASSIGNMENTS AND GRADING

A penalty of 1% per day will be applied to all late assignments

1. Readings and Group Discussion (10%):

- Students are required to complete the weekly reading of the relevant portion in Acts and the textbook before each class.
- Students are expected to attend the group discussion for 20 minutes in each class and make contributions to the understanding of the topics. Students’ comments and questions should reflect a thorough and thoughtful reading of the materials.
- Learning outcomes 1, 2, 3, 4, 5

2. Role Playing (20%):

- Each of two or three students will form a group for role playing. Each group will choose a topic in Acts and will demonstrate how to teach the topic in a Sunday school class for 30 minutes in class. All students in each group need to actively participate in role playing.
- A list of topics will be provided by the instructor on January 15. Role playing will be performed on February 26, March 5, and 12 (depending on how many groups).
- Learning outcomes 1, 2, 4

3. Book Report (20%):

- Each student will write a book report of the textbook for approximately 3,000 words. The book report should both summarize and assess the argument of the author.
- The book report is due in .pdf form at 11:59 p.m., March 19.
- Learning outcomes 1, 2, 3

4. Exegetical Paper (40%):

- Each student will write an exegetical paper of a passage in Acts for approximately 5,000 words. The exegetical paper should focus on both the ancient text and its contemporary relevance. As an academic paper, it should have a clear and well-defined thesis statement that is defended throughout the paper.
- The passage of the exegetical paper is to be agreed upon with the instructor by January 29. The exegetical paper is due in .pdf form at 11:59 p.m., April 16.

- Learning outcomes 1, 2, 3, 4, 5

5. Proposal Presentation (10%):

- Students will present their proposals for the exegetical paper for 10 minutes in class and lead the class discussion for another 10 minutes.
- The proposals will be presented on March 26, April 2, and 9 (depending on how many students).
- Learning outcomes 1, 2, 3, 4, 5

E. EQUITY OF ACCESS

Students with permanent or temporary disabilities who need academic accommodations must contact the Accessibility Services at the Centre for Academic Excellence to register and discuss their specific needs. New students must self-identify and register with the Accessibility Office at the beginning of the semester or as early as possible to access appropriate services. Current students must renew their plans as early as possible to have active accommodations in place.

G. GENERAL GUIDELINES FOR THE SUBMISSION OF WRITTEN WORK

For proper citation style, consult the Chicago-Style Quick Guide (Tyndale e-resource) or the full edition of the Chicago Manual of Style Online, especially ch. 14. For citing scripture texts, refer to sections 10.44 to 10.48 and 14.238 to 14.241.

Academic Integrity

Integrity in academic work is required of all our students. Academic dishonesty is any breach of this integrity, and includes such practices as cheating (the use of unauthorized material on tests and examinations), submitting the same work for different classes without permission of the instructors; using false information (including false references to secondary sources) in an assignment; improper or unacknowledged collaboration with other students, and plagiarism. Tyndale University takes seriously its responsibility to uphold academic integrity, and to penalize academic dishonesty.

Students are encouraged to consult Writing Services. Citation and other tip sheets. Students should also consult the current Academic Calendar for academic policies on Academic Honesty, Gender Inclusive Language in Written Assignments, Late Papers and Extensions, Return of Assignments, and Grading System.

Research Ethics

All course-based assignments involving human participants requires ethical review and may require approval by the Tyndale Research Ethics Board \(REB\). Check with the Seminary Dean's Office (aa@tyndale.ca) before proceeding.

H. COURSE EVALUATION

Tyndale Seminary values quality in the courses it offers its students. End-of-course evaluations provide valuable student feedback and are one of the ways that Tyndale Seminary works towards maintaining and improving the quality of courses and the student's learning experience. Student involvement in this process is critical to enhance the general quality of teaching and learning.

Before the end of the course, students will receive a MyTyndale email with a link to the online course evaluation. The link can also be found in the left column on the course page. The evaluation period is 2 weeks; after the evaluation period has ended, it cannot be reopened.

Course Evaluation results will not be disclosed to the instructor before final grades in the course have been submitted and processed. Student names will be kept confidential and the instructor will only see the aggregated results of the class.
